

Take Action

Help to make BC's government the most open and transparent government in Canada. It doesn't take long to sign a petition in support of the campaign's goals, or to demand that the government respect and defend your right to know.

Have you noticed our new features on the website that give you the tools to

- Sign the Petition and show your support
- Email an elected official and tell them you want open government