

FOI News

The online newspaper, The Tyee, has numerous articles on Freedom of Information in BC. The Tyee has allowed the Campaign for Open Government to host these articles as a resource for visitors to our website who would like to learn more about FOI in BC. Thanks Tyee!

Shhhh! It's 'Right to Know Week'

BC Libs so quiet about their own proclamation, you'd hardly know.

By: Russ Francis

Date: September 28, 2006

The Freedom of Info Maze

Public has right to government records, but just try to get them.

By: Russ Francis

Date: July 5, 2006

Government Secrecy Bills Pulled

Bills 23 and 30 deferred indefinitely.

By: Stanley Tromp

Date: May 11, 2006

What Libs Don't Want Us To Know

Bill 23 would limit truth-finding public inquiries.

By: Stanley Tromp

Date: May 10, 2006

Foiling Freedom of Information

Gordon Campbell promised the FOI process would be easier, cheaper and solidly funded. The opposite has happened.

By: Russ Francis

Date: April 28, 2005

'Open, Transparent, and Accountable'

That's the government B.C. Liberals promised. By most measures, they haven't delivered.

By: Russ Francis

Date: April 27, 2005

Public Spending Behind Closed Doors

Private contracts involving public money are insulating government business from needed public scrutiny.

By: Scott Deveau

Date: February 11, 2005

How BC's Government Tracks, Stalls Muckrakers

A deeper look at how Liberals track FOI-filing reporters reveals the methods, the spins, and how the reporter herself ended up on the list.

By: Ann Rees

Date: April 3, 2004